Welcome to Abiding Peace Lutheran Church

Abiding Peace Lutheran Church makes Christ known by welcoming all people to a supportive and accepting place to grow in faith and community and to serve the Lord as people created by God, saved by Christ and nurtured by the Holy Spirit.

This welcome extends beyond all physical spaces and gatherings to include our trust that God's Spirit gathers us in virtual worship, and sends us to share God's message of love and hope even within the restrictions of social distancing.

The ministry of Abiding Peace continues to be supported by the generous donations of our community. While we worship remotely, please consider contributing to our work through a variety of giving options, including donations through Venmo (search for @Abiding-Peace-BuddLake), through on-line bill pay with your bank, or by mailing your offering envelope to the church.

Sunday Morning—10:00—May 22, 2022
Sixth Sunday of Easter

As we celebrate 50+1 years of congregational life, we are reminded that God's promises to us know no time limits. The same Spirit who led the Apostle Paul continues to lead us. The same peace Jesus promised to his first followers he has given also to us. "Do not let our hearts be troubled. Neither let them be afraid."

GATHERING

Welcome

Stand, if you are able

Thanksgiving for Baptism

P Alleluia! Christ is risen.
C Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

- P In the waters of baptism, we have passed over from death to life with † Jesus Christ, and we are a new creation. For this saving mystery, and for this water, let us bless God, who was, who is, and who is to come.
- C We thank you, God, for your river of life, flowing freely from your throne: through the earth, through the city, through every living thing.
- P You rescued Noah and his family from the flood; You opened wide the sea for the Israelites. Now in these waters you flood us with mercy, and our sin is drowned forever. You open the gate of righteousness and we pass safely through.

In Jesus Christ, you calm and trouble the waters. You nourish us and enclose us in safety. You call us forth and send us out. In lush and barren places, you are with us. You have become our salvation.

Now breathe upon this water and awaken your church once more. Claim us again as your beloved and holy people. Quench our thirst; cleanse our hearts; wipe away every tear.

To you, our Beginning and our End, our Shepherd and Lamb, be honor, glory, praise, and thanksgiving, now and forever.

C Amen

Opening Hymn: The Abiding Peace of Christ
with The Messengers Sacred Dancers

1 The A - bid - ing Peace of Christ fills us with pure de - light.
2 The A - bid - ing Peace of Christ wills that his way is love;
3 The A - bid - ing Peace of Christ seeks har - mo - ny for all;
4 The A - bid - ing Peace of Christ goes with us to that place,

To find the work be - gun in us, grow pre - cious in his sight.
And to a troub - led, suffer - ing world he sends his ho - ly Dove.
And u - ni - ty with ac - tion makes us one with - in his call.
Where faith-ful saints are pro - mised rest, sur - round-ed by his grace.

WORD

Acts 16:9-15

A vision compels Paul to move his ministry into Greece. There he meets Lydia, an important person in the business community, whose heart has been opened by God to receive the gospel. Her conversion and baptism provide the impetus for the founding of the church at Philippi.

During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, “Come over to Macedonia and help us.” When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them.

We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days. On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. A certain woman named Lydia, a worshiper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul. When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, “If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home.” And she prevailed upon us.

A The Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

The musical notation consists of two staves of music in G major, common time. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and a common time signature. It features a series of eighth and sixteenth notes. The lyrics "Al - le - lu - ia." are written below the staff, followed by "Lord, to whom shall we go?" and "You have the". The second staff continues the musical line with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and a common time signature. It features a similar pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes. The lyrics "words of e - ter - nal life." are written below the staff, followed by "Al - le - lu - ia." and "Al - le - lu - ia."

P The Holy Gospel according to St. John the 14th chapter.

C Glory to you, O Lord

John 14:23-29

As Jesus talks of returning to the Father, he promises to send the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, who will teach Jesus' followers and remind them of all that Jesus taught. Even more, those in whom God makes a home will experience a peace that overcomes fear.

Jesus answered Judas (not Iscariot), "Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; and the word that you hear is not mine, but is from the Father who sent me."

"I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, 'I am going away, and I am coming to you.' If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe."

The Nicene Creed

C We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of Intercession

- A In praise for God who is our abiding peace and for God's faithfulness to this community, let us pray for all who worship here, and for all who need God's abiding peace.

A brief silence

- A Enlightening God, you have been a clear guide to your people through all generations. Continue to guide your church until one day we are reunited with all whose witness has taught us to know you. Lord, through your promise,

C grant us your peace.

- A Loving God, guide us and all your church in proclaiming God's love for all, as Paul did, and opening our hearts in welcome and hospitality as Lydia did. Lord, through your promise,

C grant us your peace.

- A God of Life, you gather your people by the river to learn and grow. Protect and cleanse the rivers of the world, and bring life-giving water to sustain life throughout creation.

Lord, through your promise,

C grant us your peace.

- A God of Justice, you are our Advocate. Help us to be advocates for those who are oppressed and in need, before those who have power. Give them the wisdom to use their authority to better serve the earth and its people. Empower with your love those who have experienced injustice, in order to fulfill the vision of peace in your Word. Lord, through your promise,

C grant us your peace.

- A Nurturing God, you sent a vision to Paul to come and help. Send us as well to lift up the downtrodden, to minister to those who are sick, to provide hope to all who are in need. When we see the brokenness of the world, help our hearts to not be troubled and to instead carry the promise of your peace. Lord, through your promise,

C grant us your peace.

- A Merciful God, the needs of your children who suffer in mind, body, or spirit too often go unnoticed or unanswered. Open our hearts to hear your call to mercy and provide comfort and support. Lord, through your promise,

C grant us your peace.

- A Faithful God, you have guided this congregation on our journey of faith for more than 50 years. Continue to teach us how to extend your welcome to the people of Mount Olive and beyond. Help us to truly be a place and a witness of abiding peace to this community. Lord, through your promise,

C grant us your peace.

- A God of all places, we give you thanks for all who have shared the faith journey of Abiding Peace at any time. Pour out your blessing on them, and continue to guide them wherever their spirits choose to soar. Lord, through your promise,

C grant us your peace.

- A Celebrating your love, your gifts, and your presence in our lives, we lift these prayers to you, trusting that you receive them, through Jesus Christ, our Savior.

C Amen

- A Let us pray.
 C Living God, you gather the wolf and the lamb to feed together in your peaceable reign, and you welcome us all at your table. Reach out to us through this meal, and show us your wounded and risen body, that we may be nourished and believe in Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

P: The Lord be with you. C: And al-so with you. P: Lift up your hearts. C: We lift them to the Lord. P: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. C: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

- P It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ. Fulfilling the promise of the resurrection, you pour out the fire of your Spirit, uniting in one body people of every nation and tongue. And so, with Mary Magdalene and Peter and all the witnesses of the resurrection, with earth and seas and all their creatures, and with angels and archangels, cherubim and seraphim, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

C Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might:

 comes in the name of the Lord.
 Ho- san - na in the high - est.

- P Holy God, you alone are holy, you alone are God. The universe declares your praise: beyond the stars; beneath the sea; within each cell; with every breath.
- C We praise you, O God.
- P Generations bless your faithfulness: through the water; by night and day; across the wilderness; out of exile into the future.
- C We bless you, O God.
- P We give you thanks for your dear Son: at the heart of human life; near to those who suffer; beside the sinner; among the poor; with us now.
- C We thank you, O God.
- P In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: "Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."
- Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me."
- Remembering his love for us on the way, at the table, and to the end, we proclaim the mystery of faith:
- C Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.
- P We pray for the gift of your Spirit: in our gathering; within this meal; among your people; throughout the world. Blessing, praise, and thanks to you, holy God, through Christ Jesus, by your Spirit, in your church, without end.
- C Amen
- P Jesus, give us faith to pray,
- C Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.
- P The risen Christ dwells with us here.
