*Abiding Peace
The Lutheran Church
Budd Lake, New Jersey*

In you, O Lord, our beginnings never end.

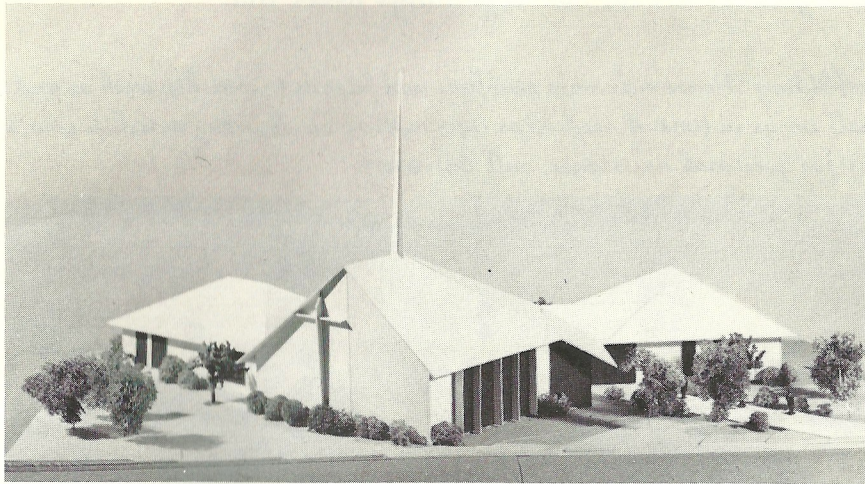

Abiding Peace welcomes members and friends to worship with us and to call on us in time of need. For information on Sunday worship services or for pastoral assistance, call 691-9393.

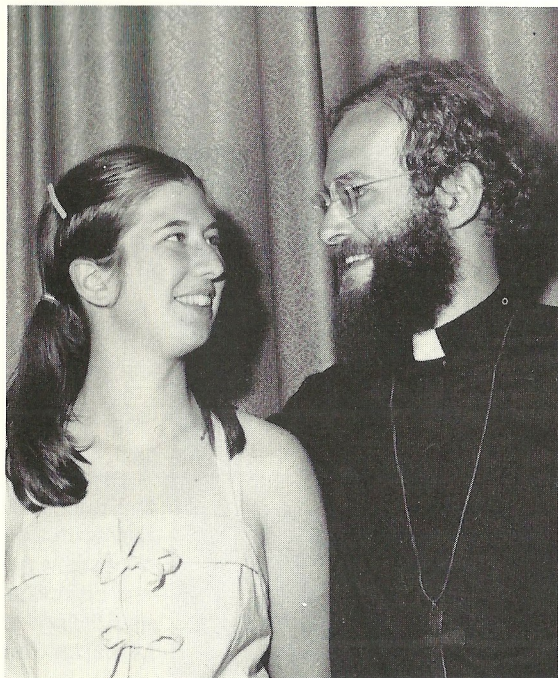

We begin in 1970 as a mission congregation in the Upper Elementary School cafeteria.

A year later, the Budd Lake Lutheran Church chooses a name and organizes as Abiding Peace Lutheran Church.

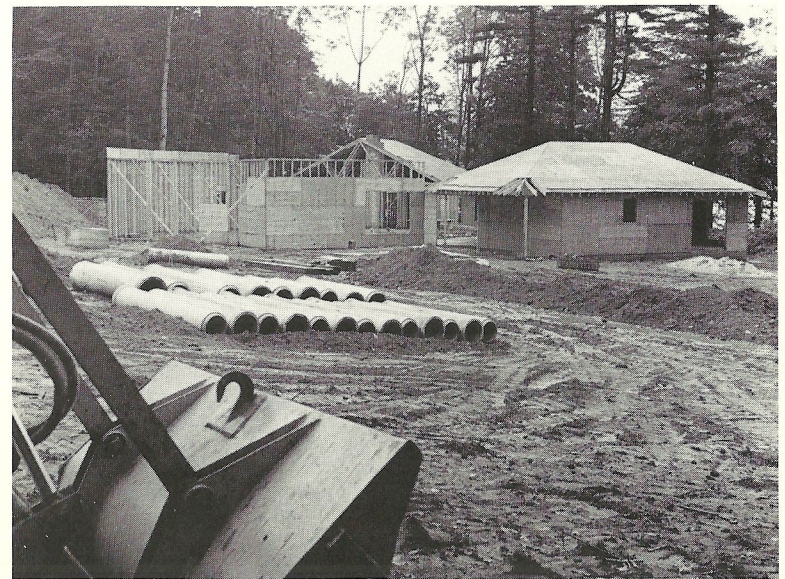

Our dreams for a center in which to celebrate God's presence in Word and Sacrament seems nearer to reality with this model of the future.

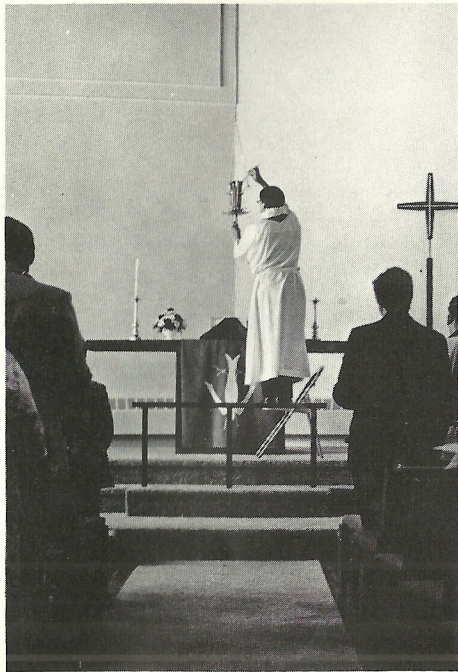

In addition to the needs of a newly formed congregation, we also recognize the need to bring the word of the Lord to others. In 1976, we take on the commitment of missionary support for Pastor and Mrs. Hornberger as they minister to the Peruvian Indians.

Seven years of organizing and planning brings the congregation its first physical evidence of their own building -- the site blessing and groundbreaking ceremony.

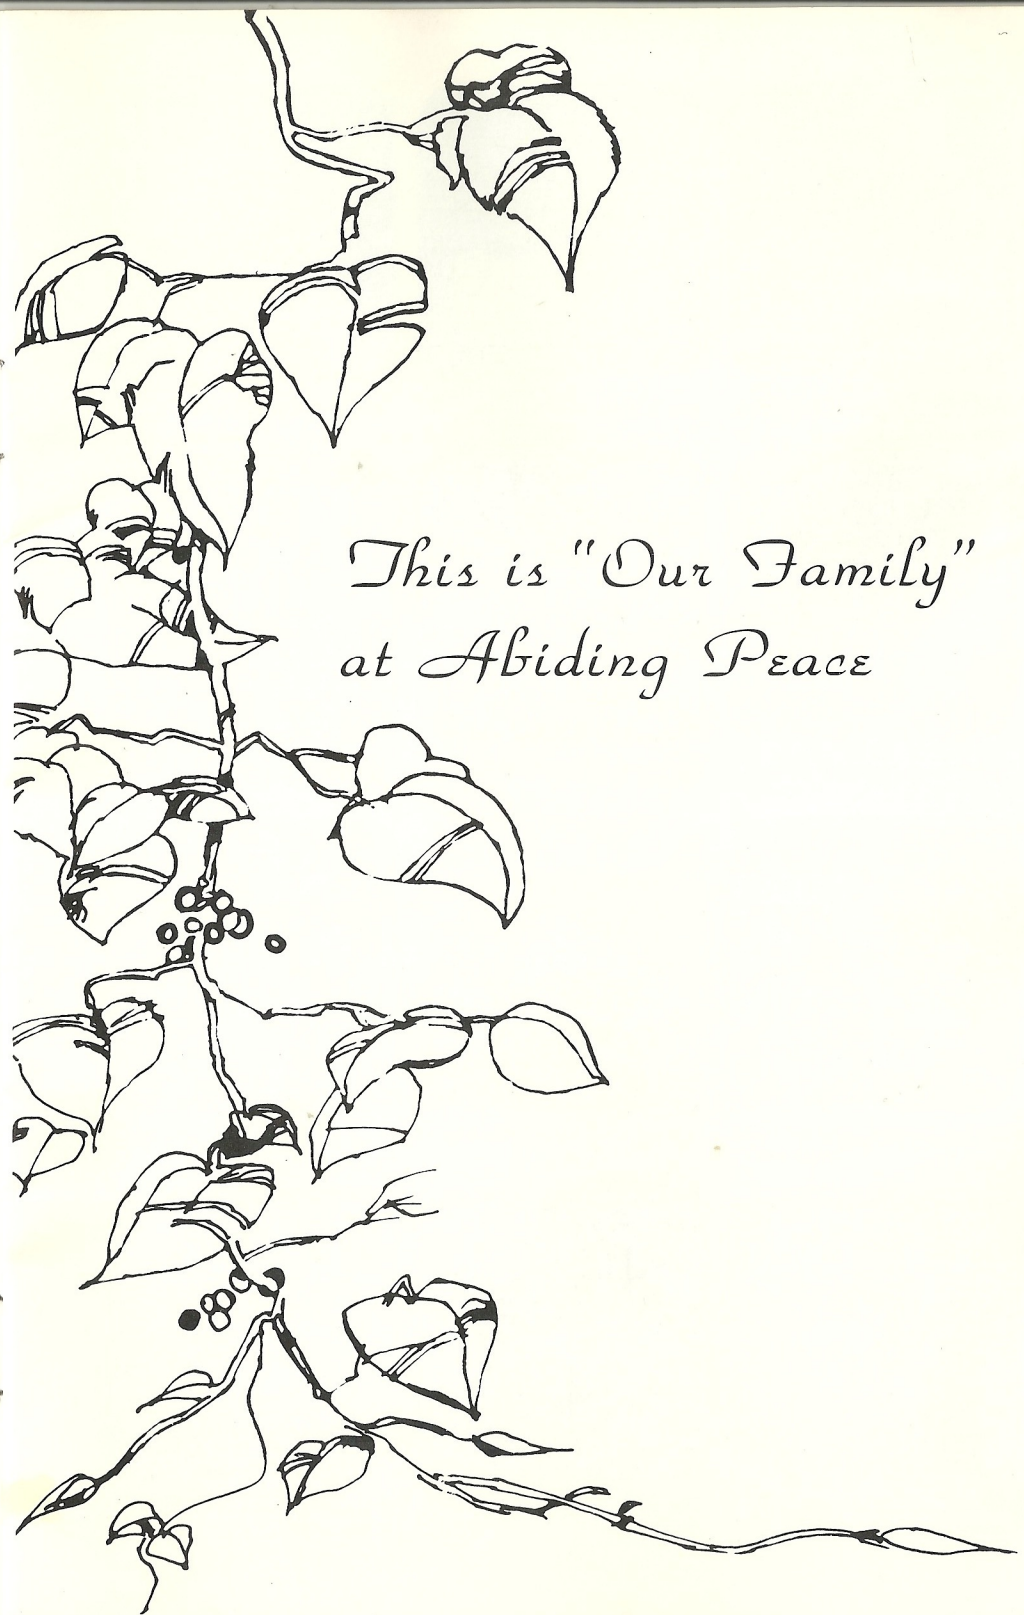

The building begins to take shape, but not before members contribute long, hard hours clearing the land. Later they will spend more time putting the finishing touches to the interior.

1978 and the Parish Life and Ministry Center is dedicated to the glory of the Lord by members and friends of the congregation.

Praises of thanksgiving are sung by the choir at the dedication celebration.
